

Activities

Activity 1: Civil Rights

Explain that the fight for equal treatment of all people in America was called the Civil Rights Movement. It took many brave and strong people (both black and white) to change the way people thought and lived during this time in American history.

Share this picture with your child of the real Ruby Bridges.

Ruby Bridges being escorted to school

November 14, 1960 in New Orleans, LA